UCLA ANDERSON SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT RESEARCH CENTERS

UCLA Anderson Forecast is one of the most widely watched and often-cited economic outlooks for California and the nation and was unique in predicting both the seriousness of the early-1990s downturn in California and the strength of the state’s rebound since 1993. More recently, the Forecast was credited as the first major U.S. economic forecasting group to declare the recession of 2001. Visit UCLA Anderson Forecast on the Web at http://www.anderson.ucla.edu/centers/ucla-anderson-forecast

Edward Leamer, Director
Jerry Nickelsburg, Senior Economist
David Shulman, Senior Economist
William Yu, Economist

The Center for Global Management (CGM) prepares UCLA Anderson students to understand, shape, and succeed in the complex world of global business. The Center provides conceptual frameworks through which to view various regions and economies, and instills in students the necessary global social, intellectual, and psychological competencies to become truly global citizens.

Sebastian Edwards, Director
Robert McCann, Associate Director
Lucy Allard, Executive Director

The Laurence and Lori Fink Center for Finance & Investments (FCFI) sponsors research, teaching and the application of financial knowledge in the global corporate and investment community. With acclaimed faculty, extensive information resources, dedicated alumni, and corporate alliances, FCFI offers the finest opportunities available anywhere for transforming fundamental knowledge into applicable practices within the global economy.

Business and Information Technologies (BIT) is a global research network based at UCLA Anderson and has partners with 20 research institutions in 16 countries. BIT is focused on studying the impacts of new information and communication technologies on business practices longitudinally — over time and, globally — across the world. Two books have been published by World Scientific Publishing on the findings of BIT, and conferences are held annually in which international industry and academic participants address technology related issues.
