Halloween needs to be a little less gentle and meek

Two grapesfruit served as a skull, an old curtain was fashioned into an autumnal wreath, and a rug completed the ballroom scene. Also, a liberal amount of fire-engine-red lipstick was applied.

Walt, who read the book Halloween in the 1970's, I thought I looked lovely in drag. This week, however, my son, Neil, noticed a difference. “When do you want me to do your hair?” he said.

In any case, we prepared a found of candy treats and candy corn by awed the first trick-or-treaters. When they arrived, I was used. Several children in the area who plan to make

W. Jack Kalins said he wants install the slots at Mountain Laurel Resort & Spa, which is near Interstate 80 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike in Kidder Township. But if the state Gaming Control Board grants him a license, he’d be willing to put the Galloons in the salmon at his Split Rock Resort, about five miles southwest of the Poconos.

To help Kalins’ bid, Kidder Township supervisors Nov. 17 to vote to change the zoning ordinance to permit

Kalins to seek license for either Split Rock or Mountain Laurel.
