THE EXECUTIVE MBA

UCLA Anderson
SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

THINK IN THE NEXT
In the UCLA Anderson Executive MBA program, you will join business leaders from many different industries to share and benefit from each other’s perspectives. You’ll thrive in collaborative teams — “mini boards” — where a small, diverse group of experts takes on complex challenges. The result: improved problem-solving, a broader command of business and the insight to lead in any situation.

Each member of the mini board contributes distinct and complementary areas of expertise.

Watch the mini board story at bit.ly/EMBAMiniBoard
EARN AN MBA IN ONE OF THE MOST DYNAMIC BUSINESS CLIMATES IN THE WORLD.
EMBA students have an average of 14 years’ work experience and 9 years in management.

“I learned the importance of diversity of thought. Having a team that’s very talented but with very different styles of thinking made us so much stronger and capable.”

— Nan Boden (’11)
Head of Global Technology Partners, Google
Master the art of leadership.

In the Executive MBA program, leadership development isn’t just a priority; it’s the foundation of what we do.

The leadership suite includes:

• The Leadership Foundations 2-year core class
• Real-World Problems that Leaders Face capstone course
• Executive communication and presentation skills
• The Leadership Speaker Series

Here, you’ll have access to luminaries.

EMBAs meet with and learn from other inspiring leaders who candidly share their experiences and expertise.

David Glickman
CEO
Ultra Mobile and Primo Connect

Molly Jolly (‘99)
SVP of Finance and Administration
Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim

Thomas Priselac
President and CEO
Cedars-Sinai Health System

Maria Rigatti
EVP and CFO
Edison International
Your master’s thesis isn’t a laborious paper, it’s an actionable business plan for a real organization.

UCLA Anderson pioneered the first business school field study program in 1968. During the six-month Strategic Management Research (SMR) project, your consulting team will work with corporate executives to improve a specific area of their business. You’ll gain new industry and cross-functional experience that will influence your critical thinking and decision making.

Our recent SMR clients:
Immerse yourself in foreign markets and become versed in global business.

The International Business Seminar ensures you gain firsthand knowledge of the business environment of another country. Travel abroad with your class and faculty for a one-week seminar, which includes:

• Company tours and guest speakers
• Lectures from faculty at partner universities
• Cultural visits
• Networking with business and government leaders plus local Anderson alumni
At UCLA, your elective options are practically endless.

The Executive MBA program offers six specialized certificates: Entrepreneurship, Global Management, Finance, Marketing, Leaders in Sustainability and Technology Leadership.

Enroll in elective classes in different programs at Anderson and take classes across the UCLA campus to customize your learning experience.

Global Immersions and International Exchange electives offer the opportunity to share travel experiences with students across all UCLA Anderson MBA programs.
Our faculty have been advising entrepreneurs, corporations and countries for years.

Dr. Sebastian Edwards, Professor of International Business Economics
A former chief economist for the World Bank in Latin America and the Caribbean, Dr. Edwards is now an economic consultant for the State of California and multiple countries.

Dr. Suzanne Shu, Associate Professor of Marketing
A former electrical engineer, Dr. Shu offers an analytical perspective on marketing. As an advisor to the Social Security Administration, Dr. Shu provides expertise in consumer spending and saving.
Gain Access to Industry Leaders and Cutting-Edge Research.

Our centers connect students, faculty, alumni and businesses through elective courses, events and student clubs.

In addition to our centers, we recently launched the Impact@Anderson initiative, focusing on social innovation and how business can profit while doing good.

LEARN MORE: MBA.ANDERSON.UCLA.EDU/CENTERS
We support your career objective, no matter how ambitious. Which one are you?

- Enhancer
- Shifter
- Explorer
- Entrepreneur

“Aafter I had served 26 years in the military, the EMBA program and its career services were instrumental to my successful transition into civilian life and leadership at SpaceX. I’ve never stopped doing what I love.”

Lars Hoffman (’15)
From U.S. Air Force Colonel to Senior Director of Government Sales at SpaceX
“What I learned in EMBA still influences my process and decision making in the Disney Accelerator, and that connection keeps me coming back to stay involved with Anderson.”
— David Min (‘07)
VP of Strategic Business Innovation, The Walt Disney Company

Alumni Network Connect globally to our network of 38,000 — representing countless industries in more than 75 countries.

Lifelong Learning Because you don’t stop learning after graduation, we offer elective course auditing and Global Immersion privileges for EMBA alumni.

Alumni Career Resources Access career support, including individual career coaching, networking events and other services tailored to our alumni.
Unlock new possibilities.
Apply for the UCLA Anderson Executive MBA.

The EMBA application consists of:

- Two letters of recommendation
- Official sealed transcript(s)
- Resume
- Two essays
- TOEFL for select international applicants
- GMAT, GRE or Executive Assessment

Contact EMBA Admissions Staff to see if you qualify for a waiver.

Apply at anderson.ucla.edu/emba