

1960s

1960 | 1961 | 1962 | 1963 | 1964 | 1965 | 1966 | 1967 | 1968 | 1969

1961 Bachelor's

Richard Slotkin is a retired civil servant (City of Los Angeles) and adjunct assistant professor of economics at Los Angeles Valley College and Pasadena City College for 37 years. He is still teaching at age 80!

(Submitted 7/26/13)

1962 Bachelor's

Recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award of the State Bar of California and a member of the Million Dollar Consulting® Hall of Fame, author Edward Poll recently released his 16th anniversary edition of Profitable Law Office Handbook: Attorney's Guide to Successful Business Planning. He also just released his new book, Life

Edward Poll

After Law: What Will You Do With the Next 6,000 Days?

To find out more, check out www.lawbizblog.com.

(Submitted 7/15/13)

1964 Full-Time MBA

Dr. Sheldon S. Ellis reaches out, "Hello, all, It'd be nice to get in touch with classmates. My email is: ebtdad1@gmail.com."

(Submitted 7/15/13)

Frank Feiler shares, "In 1990, after a 40-year career in engineering and financial management, I retired from Rockwell International as vice president and controller of the Rocketdyne Division. In 1992 I began a second career with the Executive Service Corps of Southern California (ESCSC) as a (pro-bono) consultant providing management services to the nonprofit community."

(Submitted 7/16/13)

// Home

// Submit a Class Note

// Update Your Profile

// Alumni Directory

// Office of Alumni Relations

// Assets Digital

// In Memoriam

1960s

1960 | 1961 | 1962 | 1963 | 1964 | 1965 | 1966 | 1967 | 1968 | 1969

1965 Full-Time MBA

Dick Biddle conveys, “From 1965 to 1972, I was personnel testing supervisor at Lockheed. 1972 to 1974, I was helping California’s public sector employers comply with employment discrimination laws working for the State of California as director of the Selection Consulting Center. Then began with Biddle & Associates, Inc., from 1974 to 2001 helping private and public employers comply with employment discrimination laws. After I retired, my son, Dan Biddle took over. From 2001 to the present, I am chairman of board of Biddle Consulting Group, Inc. and Fire Police Selection, Inc. (Submitted 7/26/13)

Dick Biddle

Bob Foster sends his greetings, “Hello 1965 classmates. I am currently a full-time adjunct professor at UCLA Anderson. I started as a visiting lecturer advising field study teams in the fall of 1984, then in 1989 I went on to teach high-technology management part-time while I was a CEO in a couple of local high-tech firms. . In 1998, I switched to full time, teaching business plan development, field study, and high-technology management. I am now director of the Global Access Program, the field study for fully employed MBAs. If there any of the graduates from 1965 reading this update, let me know what you are doing. I’m now 74, working full time, and now have the best job in my career working with bright, young MBAs.”

(Submitted 4/14/13)

Daniel Horowitz shares, “I started my own commercial income property mortgage broker firm over thirty years ago. I am a supporter of all things UCLA, including: Founder, John Wooden Center and West Alumni Center; and supporter, Wooden Athletic Fund, Chancellor’s Associates, Anderson, Boelter Society, UCLA Engineering, and several other campus-related organizations.” (Submitted 8/3/13)

// Home

// Submit a Class Note

// Update Your Profile

// Alumni Directory

// Office of Alumni Relations

// Assets Digital

// In Memoriam

1960s

1960 | 1961 | 1962 | 1963 | 1964 | 1965 | 1966 | 1967 | 1968 | 1969

1967 Full-Time MBA

John Tippetts keeps very busy sharing the real-life story he has written about in Hearts of Courage. The Hearts of Courage story carries a motivational and inspirational message. John describes it as “a wonderful Alaskan, aviation, faith and prayers, survival story.” John is the son of one of the survivors, Joe Tippetts. Using historical photographs and numerous other illustrations, along with his father’s first-hand descriptions, John Tippetts’ presentation is a source of inspiration to all who hear it.

John Tippetts's book
Hearts of Courage

Vernon Tyerman spent 37 years in the telecommunications industry ending up in charge of AirTouch Cellular’s properties in Europe. After being bought out by Vodafone in 1999, he retired to the UK. He updates, “I bought our local general store and post office. And now that it was improved and sold, genuine retirement is on the horizon spending time making wine in St. Helena, golfing in Matakana, NZ, and relaxing in Incline Village, NV.” (Submitted 7/26/13)

1968 Full-Time MBA

After 39 years in the computer industry, Mike Befeler retired into fiction writing, now with six published mystery novels. The latest two being The V V Agency, a paranormal mystery introducing a new type of shape-shifter, and the fifth book in his Paul Jacobson Geezer-lit Mystery Series, Care Homes Are Murder. He lives with his wife Wendy (UCLA BA, 1967) in Boulder, Colorado.

Book cover of Mike Befeler's new mystery novel The V V Agency

(Submitted 7/26/13)

1968 PHD

Michael Maggard shares, “My wife, Patricia, passed away on May 8th, 2010. After 31 years, I retired as Professor Emeritus from Northeastern University, Boston, MA, on June 30th, 2011.” (Submitted 8/1/13)

// Home

// Submit a Class Note

// Update Your Profile

// Alumni Directory

// Office of Alumni Relations

// Assets Digital

// In Memoriam

1960s

1960 | 1961 | 1962 | 1963 | 1964 | 1965 | 1966 | 1967 | 1968 | 1969

1968 PHD

Stephen Goch writes, "After a career of 50 years in the aerospace industry, I retired. I am now involved with a number of volunteer organizations: Civil Air Patrol, Angel Flight (food kitchen), and a railroad historical society. I travel frequently with my wife Kathy and share her enthusiasm for new experiences."

(Submitted 7/15/13)

Your classmates would love to hear from you!

Send your updates to: classnotes@anderson.ucla.edu or click here to submit online.

// Home

// Submit a Class Note

// Update Your Profile

// Alumni Directory

// Office of Alumni Relations

// Assets Digital

// In Memoriam