1963 Bachelors

After graduating from UCLA Anderson and UCLA Law School, Kenneth Wood moved to San Diego to join Rohr Industries as in-house counsel. He then moved to private practice in 1970 and has been practicing law ever since. He writes, "Of special note, while at Anderson I was regional director for the AIESEC which was a great program and experience. I worked in Lyon, France for three months under that program. My law practice has been in real estate, estate planning, and business matters with a specialty in the horse industry. Also, I recently spent just under two years with U.S. Trust as a client advisor but left that position last year. I've written and published several books on the legal and tax aspects of the horse business along with a syndicated column for horse-related magazines. I am currently creating a website to market a subscription service for attorneys, CPAs, and horse-business owners relating to the legal and tax aspects including case law, legislation, and economics. I was married for 44 years to Linda and we had two daughters--one now lives in Sydney, Australia, and the other in the San Diego. Linda died of ovarian cancer in 2009 after a three-year battle. I am a widower." (Submitted 1/25/13)
