Frequently Asked Questions
Accounting Minor Program

Contact UCLA Anderson-Accounting Minor, MyUCLA Message Center for other questions

What is the Accounting Minor Interviewing Workshop and how do I sign up?

The Accounting Minor Interviewing Workshop is a three-part workshop series designed to increase your chances of receiving competitive job offers. Over three sessions you will learn: personal branding and networking, resumes and cover letters, and have an opportunity to network with real industry professionals/recruiters. Registration for the workshop is available on the Accounting Minor Program website.

Where do I turn in my application? When is it due?

The Accounting Minor application is online. The submission period typically begins on Monday of first week at 9:00 AM and ends on the Sunday of first week at 11:00 PM.

When will I find out if I have been admitted into the minor?

We will notify applicants by week 8 of the quarter that you applied.

Is there a maximum number of units I can have when I apply for the Minor?

Currently, there is no unit maximum when applying to the minor. Students should consult with their College or School regarding policies or restrictions on pursuing minors outside of their College or School. Students in the College are permitted to add a minor if they can still graduate on time.

Will AP credits count towards the preparation/requisite coursework?

If UCLA accepts the AP credits, we will also accept them. However, AP credits are not included in your overall UCLA GPA calculations.

Can I satisfy any minor courses at another institution?

Students are allowed to complete the Management 1A and 1B and the lower-division course requirement for the minor at another institution. All upper division coursework MUST be taken at UCLA.

If you have not yet enrolled in a course at another institution, please check the Transferology.com website BEFORE enrolling. This will show if the course you are interested in taking is equivalent to a course at UCLA. If the course is not equivalent to a course at UCLA, please contact the Undergraduate Accounting Minor Program through MyUCLA Message Center.

If you have already completed courses at another institution, please send all transcripts to the UCLA Admissions Office. If the UCLA Admissions Office has not recognized the courses you took as equivalent to any courses offered at UCLA, please email a detailed syllabus of the course through MyUCLA Message Center to the Undergraduate Accounting Minor Program Office for approval.

Transfer credit is subject to department approval and is considered only for the Management 1A and 1B and the lower-division course.

How many courses can I repeat for the minor ?

Only one lower-division minor course or Management 1A and 1B, and one upper-division course repeat are allowed.

Can I take P/NP courses for the minor?

Each course must be taken for a letter grade.

Can I take upper-division courses elsewhere?

All upper-division courses for the minor must be completed at UCLA; no transferable credit is allowed. No course substitutions are allowed.

Are there different elective requirements for Business Economics Majors?

Yes. Business Economics Majors should consult with their advisor in the Department of Economics about their elective requirements.

What is the minimum passing grade once admitted into the minor?

Each course must be taken for a letter grade and must be completed with a grade of C or better. The minimum grade for all three; the required lower-division course and Management 1A and 1B, should be a B or better.

Will the minor show on my diploma?

Yes, successful completion of the minor is indicated on the transcript and diploma.

In the event there is a discrepancy between the Accounting Minor program website or any of its information flyers or sessions and the UCLA General Catalog, the Catalog is considered the official record as it contains the most current, officially approved policies and program information.